Handling and Sharing Company Information: Best Practices

Agoda is a data-centric organization, and data is a key driver for our company. It is important that it is protected. It is important that you understand what information can be shared externally.

Refrain from doing the following:

- ✗ Sharing business plans, trade secrets, contractual and legal agreements
- ✗ Sharing confidential information about new products or technologies
- ✗ Sharing customer data, including identifying gender or age
- ✗ Sharing numbers and financials
- ✗ Transferring Agoda files and information to your personal email, storage cloud or device
- ✗ Posting 'high-risk' or sensitive company data on social media

In the office and on social media:

1. Important: Reach out to PR and Compliance team if you want to post workplace videos or photos
2. Be mindful of what information you share on public channels and social media
3. You should not speak on behalf of Agoda unless you're an authorized spokesperson
 - Click here to find out more about What We Can and Can't Say Outside of Agoda
